Our building is a turn of the century structure originally built for the Marshall Paper Company. When this building was being built just over 100 years ago…

- The average life expectancy was 47. Probably a good thing because Social Security didn’t exist yet.
- Only 8% of homes had a telephone, which means 92% of us did not have our dinners interrupted by sales calls.
- A three minute call from New York to Denver cost $11. If the price of cars would have gone down proportionally, a new car would cost $40 today.
- There were only 8,000 cars in the US and only 144 miles of paved roads, most of which were closed for repairs.
- The population of Las Vegas was 30. Gamblers Anonymous didn’t exist yet.
- WD-40 and duct tape didn’t exist, which leads us to our present day rule for men: You need only these two tools. If it doesn’t move and should, use WD-40. If it moves and shouldn’t, use the duct tape.
